

Prime Minister Dorin Recean had a meeting with the European Commissioner for Justice

June 3, 2024, Chisinau - Prime Minister Dorin Recean had a meeting with Didier Reynders, the European Commissioner for Justice. The officials spoke about the justice reform, the anti-corruption policies promoted by the authorities and the hybrid challenges facing the Republic of Moldova.

Prime Minister Dorin Recean specified that the justice reform is the most difficult, but also fundamental to achieve progress on all other dimensions. Currently, the authorities are focused on the exercise of evaluating the integrity of judges and prosecutors, fighting corruption and transposing European legislation in the justice segment.

"Our goal is to increase the capacities of all actors in the system, to increase efficiency national courts, to move forward with the optimization of the court map and digitize the processes in the justice sector. Ensuring the rule of law is essential for all citizens, businessmen and to increase the investment attractiveness of the country", said Prime Minister Dorin Recean.

In this context, the European Commissioner for Justice congratulated the authorities for completing the selection procedure of a new general prosecutor and gave assurances regarding his personal and expert support of the European Union in the justice reform process.

The two officials also discussed the need to strengthen the efforts of all European states in the fight against Russian propaganda and influence, especially during election periods.
